

CLASSIFIED ADVTS	23
COMICS	18, 19
CROSSWORD PUZZLE	18
EDITORIAL	24
EDUCATION	24
ELSIE ROBINSON	24
FASHIONS	16, 17
FINANCIAL	14
FLOYD GIBBONS	18
GIRL ABOUT TOWN	18
HEALTH	21
LOUELLA PARSONS	21
"LOVE'S LITANY"	17
MOVIE FACES CONTEST	6
N. E. DETECTIVE STORIES	8
O. O. MCINTYRE	24
RADIO PROGRAMS	9
ROBERT E. ROGER	13
SCREEN MIXUPS	7
SOCIETY	20, 21, 23
SPORTS	20, 21, 23
"YOUR FIGURE, MADAME"	16

NEW TAX SLASH SPENDING LOOMS; MAY RESTRICT RAW DEAL

Washington, Feb. 5 (AP)—A leading Democrat closely in touch with tax matters said today that the administration had no present plans for asking new taxes to cover bonus payment costs.

President Roosevelt previously had said at least $500,000,000 in taxes would be necessary to finance the new farm plan. He emphasized, however, that these taxes would not be new, simply replacing invalidated AAA processing levies.

In some quarters $200,000,000 in bonus taxes had been discussed. Mr. Roosevelt told the press yesterday, however, the additional cost to the government of paying the bonus immediately was about $100,000,000.

TO CUT SPENDING
All tax bills originate in the ways and means committee. This Democrat preferred not to be quoted by name. He indicated Chairman Douglas (D.) of the House Committee on Finance, in a discussion with the White House by telephone, had received information that on the basis of present plans to lay in reserve the bonus will be sought.

The word was advanced on Capitol Hill as Mr. Roosevelt planned a meeting tomorrow of the heads of government spending agencies with the view of determining whether any unexpected balances of authorized outlays might be held up.

The President arranged last night to cancel more than $1,000,000 in authorized spending for the longer needed—presumably because of improved business conditions. He promised at the time a similar check on direct spending.

INFLATIONISTS MEET
Some Washington observers held the opinion that should the President determine upon a slash in direct spending, in addition to the projects use of federal credits, the move might be interpreted as a start toward restricting major New Deal services.

The ways and means committee was in session today for minor legislation. Douglas still looked toward the White House for Treasury's some definite recommendation for taxes before initiating any tax move.

Inflationists, opposing any new taxes for the bonus in advocating currency expansion to liquidate the farmers' debt, were to meet later.

Buy American
Made In America Club, Inc., Graybar Building, New York.

I hereby pledge myself to buy, so far as practicable, only products made or grown in America, by American labor, of American materials, and thereby protect my job, give work to my fellow-Americans and maintain the American standard of wages.

Name _____
Address _____

Sign the above pledge card, clip it from your Boston Evening American, and mail it to THE MADE IN AMERICA CLUB, INC., GRAYBAR BUILDING, NEW YORK CITY. Your signature will show your interest in a "Buy American" movement to help American industry and employ American labor.

The New HOVEY'S
See...
OUR REGISTERED OPTOMETRIST about your eyes!
They are the only ones you'll ever have...care for them with properly fitted glasses!

Announcing Our New Optical Department
Opening Thursday

We have foreseen how convenient it would be for you to have your eyes cared for in your own department store...and have secured the expert services of Dr. Kraft, registered optometrist, and his staff at the new Hovey's. The work done for you may be charged to your regular Hovey's account, or consult our convenient register department.

THE NEW HEBERT FLOOR-CHAUNCEY STREET BLDG.

Army Air Bombers 'Attack' Boston

Army bombers in the latest type of attack ships "attacked" Boston this afternoon at 2 o'clock. There were ten bombing planes in the "attack" flying group. While from the Boston airport twenty planes rose to the defense of Boston. Here are some of the bombers photographed at Mitchell Field, New York. These are some of the planes that flew over Boston today.

ILLINOIS STRIKE ARMY BOMBERS POLICE SET 'ATTACK' CITY

Pekin, Ill., Feb. 5 (AP)—Flying business houses in this industrial city today and tonight were told that all doors must be closed by 3 p.m. today or their windows would be smashed.

As the second day of a general strike brought the city's business almost to a standstill, the strikers, individually and in groups of from two to six, canvassed the city in 13 below zero weather. Wherever a store, pool hall or shop was found open, the committee called.

"Sign this petition and close your shop," the protesters yelled. "We're not feeling and if you don't do as you're told your windows will be smashed. You are to close at 3 o'clock."

ARMY BASE BID
A $700,000 project for improvement of the army base has been approved by the comptroller general, according to word from the comptrollerman John W. McCormack, of South Boston.

PROBE TWO DEATHS

Continued from First Page
of a Brooklyn, N. Y., depression, where a magazine, who was killed by a train at Bedford, Vt., on Monday, after a prolonged illness. Although medical authorities were prepared to rule a "death by accident," county police, after a thorough investigation, discredited that they have all the evidence in connection with the deaths.

Hints of suicide existed in each case, but officials here, who were not substantial enough to warrant them to drop their investigations.

"TO TAKE A WALK"
"Found in the room of the Straus boy there was a note, unaddressed, which read:

"The demands of modern life are too much for me. I am going to take a walk."

Dean Robert C. Strong revealed today that the boy had made resignation as a student only a week ago, but that the college head had prevailed upon the boy to re-enroll.

Another note, which took to a more mysterious outlook had been written to one of his girl acquaintances. This note was opened by college authorities and forwarded to the address, but they declared that they would not reveal her identity.

Other than to declare that the letter gave no indication that the Straus contemplated suicide, authorities refused to reveal the nature of its contents.

FACED EXAMINATION
Neither, in their investigation, did officials learn whether the boy had learned of the death of his former classmate.

The latter, according to his chums at Amherst, had received poor marks in his studies and had faced another examination the day after.

ROBERT BAST RAIL DEAL IN SLOUCH PER WIZ

Continued from First Page
the interest of the party locally and nationally.

"Chairman McGrath was very courteous yesterday, which I appreciated. I thought, however, that I had made myself very clear that I was not in any sense a candidate for any office except that of delegate."

"AVOIDING" TALLMADGE
Close friends of the former governor said he would steer clear of any political association with Governor Tallmadge of Georgia, who suggested him as a vice-presidential candidate.

The close relation between Ely and the "Happy Warrior" of 1928 has given rise to the belief that the former tonight is to be the formal reply of the Smith faction to the administration speech of Senator Joseph T. Robinson of Arkansas.

It is expected to co-ordinate the Smith campaign in Massachusetts with the democratic national convention in June.

FOR UNPLEDGED LIST
Groundwork for the drive for delegates to the Democratic National Convention in June was laid in a statement to newspapermen at his Boston offices.

But now, with Ely and the Smith following militantly against the Democratic will, a difficult task is to carry the state for Roosevelt.

E. POSTON ROY COASTER DIES
The first coasting fatality of the season in East Boston was recorded today when E. Poston Roy, 31, of N. 9th st., died of injuries sustained in a crash on the coasting track.

AUTOS HAVE KILLED 31 IN GREATER BOSTON THIS YEAR
The boy was riding on Collings street, near his home, and was struck by a car, which was driven by a man, who was killed by police to have been operating a car without a license.

Horse Wins
Orangeburg, S. C., Feb. 5 (AP)—The meter age received a rebuff at a race of confounded horses.

15 DAY FREE TRIAL
at Berman's
The New 1936's
World Famous
AMERICAN BOSCH
UNUSUAL VALUE! $17.95
YOU PAY AT THE END OF THE TRIAL ONLY
BOSCH'S

The most comfortable way to NEW YORK
EASTERN STEAMSHIP LINES
Linden's Birthdays
Selling date Feb. 5, 1936, 2 P. M. at Linden's, 200 N. 1st St., New York City. Tickets, returning leave New York and Boston, Feb. 10, 1936, 10 P. M.

Gas Fumes Fell 9 in Malden
Nine persons, including three children, were overcome by gas from a leak in a street main in Malden, Mass., today.

Grand Larceny
Kathleen Walsh, Feb. 5 (AP)—A sewer construction crew, caught again today, had stolen the tools in a shed at the close of the day's work.

Ask Bids on Sister Ship to Queen Mary
London, Feb. 5 (INRS)—Designs for a sister-ship equaling in size the unfinished Queen Mary were requested from four leading British shipbuilders today by the Cunard White Star line, said the Daily Mail.

Westfield Pastor Dies
Westfield, Mass., Feb. 5 (AP)—Rev. Reinhold Tenz, 39, former pastor of St. John's Lutheran Church, died during the night at the Lakeville Sanatorium.

AMERICAN BOSCH
UNUSUAL VALUE! $17.95
YOU PAY AT THE END OF THE TRIAL ONLY
BOSCH'S

Radio Engineers Since 1918
4 STORES—BOSTON—CAMBRIDGE
100 STATE ST., BOSTON
20 STUART ST., NEW BRIDGE ST.
30 MASS. AVE., CENTRAL ST. GARD.
All Stores Open Till 9 P. M.

AL SMITH HOLDING LEAD IN NEW DEAL BALLOT

Out of 1522 ballots cast in the poll being conducted by the Boston Evening American and Sunday Advertiser on the Smith-Robinson New Deal debate, Al Smith today leads by 1015 votes to 504.

Ballots are coming in fast now, but it is not too late for you to cast yours.

The former New York Governor made his attack on the policies of the national administration a week ago Saturday at Washington, and his running mate on the Democratic national ticket in 1928 made his reply three days later.

Their speeches opened the public barrage, continued on both sides, which will end only on Election Day.

What do you think of the opening bombardment? Who delivered the most convincing argument? Al Smith or Senator Joseph T. Robinson of Arkansas?

Mr. John B. Kelly of Elm street, Gardiner, one of many persons who have accompanied their ballots with letters supporting one side or the other, writes:

YES VOTE FOR SMITH

"Enclosed please find my check, not only of the best order as regards convincing argument, but also the best man in real true men and women who deal with Mr. Smith.

"Mr. Smith spoke from his heart and meant every word he said, while Mr. Robinson only recited a lesson from the 'House of Two Drums'."

"Would it not be a grand thing if we could honestly vote now real men like Alfred E. Smith or Mr. Kelly into office, and I think Gov. Landon stands a good chance if he will do as well for the T. S. as he did for Kansas.

"If all the good that does and Al Smith did for his state of New York could be republished for the edification of all, his real worth would then be known."

VOTE FOR ROBINSON

From the U. S. Veterans' Hospital at Rutland comes this letter signed by Howard Goldman:

"In behalf of 500 World War veterans who are not patients here, I take the liberty of sending you my ballot. We have not picked Mr. Robinson because we are in favor of all the things the New Deal stands for, but we know what Al Smith said when he was out for the President, and he has come out for exactly what the new deal is doing now so therefore, being true Americans and not hypocrites, we cast our vote for Senator Robinson.

"We realize Mr. Smith has thrown his brown derby away and is now wearing the 'ark' avenue high hat, and we are thankful that we are now under the leadership of this gentleman."

"E. J. Emmott of Worcester, Vt., writes that he has no use at all for a man who would blot his party. He considers Al Smith a poor loser.

"On the other side, Frank J. Dowd, East Foster street, Melrose, declares Senator Robinson spent his time hounding Smith, rather than explaining where the President 'is taking the country'."

BALLOT SMITH . . . versus . . . NEW DEAL

Who in your belief delivered the more convincing argument, Alfred E. Smith or Senator Joseph T. Robinson. Indicate your answer below.

SMITH ROBINSON

Mail to Political Editor, Boston Evening American, 5 Winthrop Square, Boston, Mass.

Killing of Nazi Chief Spurs New Jewish Drive

Continued from First Page

It realizes that only what the news papers called subversive activity was by Jews endangered world peace.

Nazi party groups throughout the world were ordered to lower their flags in a demonstration to the memory of Goettlieb.

Hitler himself telegraphed his condolences to the widow of the Nazi leader in Switzerland.

Dr. Fuehrer's newspaper called for swift justice from Swiss authorities, asserting the Goettlieb murder by a Jew threw a glaring light on the rotten activity of Jews in the whole world.

This newspaper said the slaying justified Nazi repression of Jews from Germans in the Third Reich.

BREAK UP PARTY

The news of the shooting reached Berlin just as Baron Konstantin von Neurath, foreign minister, was giving a reception for 1200 diplomats and Nazi leaders. All uniformed Nazis left the reception as

AL SHOWS GAIN IN 2 CITIES

New York, Feb. 8.—Alfred E. Smith increased his lead slightly today as more than 700 ballots were tallied in New York and Chicago in the "New Deal" controversy between Smith and Senator Joseph T. Robinson.

Smith's lead was 1015 to 504 in New York. In Chicago, Smith's lead was 1015 to 504. In the two principal cities of the country today since the percentages of the vote were: Smith, 57.5 and Robinson 42.5. On Monday the percentages were: Smith, 57.5 and Robinson 42.5.

NEW YORK

Smith	2,475	Per Cent	61.34
Robinson	1,285		38.66
CHICAGO
Smith	1,174	Per Cent	62.96
Robinson	1,297		47.04
TOTAL
Smith	4,508	Per Cent	62.48
Robinson	4,211		37.52

Smith increased his lead in the New York area from 67.5 per cent on Monday to 61.34 per cent yesterday. In the Chicago district his percentage rose from 51.42 on Monday to 62.96 yesterday.

More ballots were received in both cities than on any day since the poll opened, and hundreds of letters accompanied the ballots. Many continued in a caustic vein, indicating the division of feeling created by the New Deal policy was pronounced.

Plan Convention

The board of governors of the Boston Freepress Club will hold their dinner at the Boston Chamber of Commerce Friday, where they will meet local citizenship men and port officials to draft plans for holding the next national convention of the club and the Merchant Marine conference in Boston.

A surprise witness of the day was Miss Irene Tempert, formerly a secretary to Dolan in his private brokerage, who testified that she had been threatened with embarrassment on the witness stand if she did not make a statement satisfactory to "the city."

It's our family's whiskey, neighbor—and neighbor, it's your price!

Neighbors stopping by on a chilly night tell us there's nothing more comforting and grateful-like than a nip of our Family's Whiskey before setting out in the cold again. Being an extra mild and smooth it's just what you need when you're out there in the cold.

It's specially suited for taking a swallow or two straight—without any water or anything. If you've sampled it yourself, as more than likely you have, you've found that out without me remarking about it.

Harry E. Wilken, Sr.

Wait till you feel how easy our Family's Whiskey slithers down your throat!

THE WILKEN FAMILY BLENDED WHISKEY

Blended and Bottled by J. S. Finch & Co., Inc., Schenley, Pa.—Division of Schenley Products Co., Inc. FREE—A copy of The Wilken Family Cooking Album if you'll write me at The Maples, R. F. D. No. 3, Schenley, Pa. SUPERVISED BY THE WILKEN FAMILY

"GET CURLEY" TALK STIRS FIN. COM.

Hearings will be resumed later this week in the finance commission's probe of the activities of the city law department.

The hull came after a hectic session during which a member of the law department was quoted as saying: "We don't give a damn about Dolan. We're out to get Curley and we won't stop until we get him behind the bars."

Edney E. Sullivan, former city clerk, attacked the law department, who was ousted Monday night by Mayor Hanford, made the charge after he had been recalled to the witness stand.

Sullivan attributed the statement to Assistant Corporation Counsel Walter F. Hennesberry and said that the statement was made concerning the purposes of the inquiry into the Legal Services Corporation.

SAYS DOYLE HEARD

Sullivan declared that the statement was made in the presence of a "Captain Doyle," not identified with the law department, but an outside citizen.

He further charged that Representative Christian A. Hertz's head statement in exclusive night clubs disqualified him for the position of chairman of the "special committee" raising funds to purchase information for the prosecution of the Dolan case.

Sullivan said that at a conference with Mr. Roosevelt, when the latter was in judgment over Walker during the famous Hennesberry investigation in Albany, which culminated in Walker's resignation as mayor of New York after seven years in that office.

FRIENDLY WITH FARLEY

Walker at about the same time—later—developed a grudge against Al Smith. He felt Smith, having his personal and political friends should have "come to the front" for him.

Farley came into the picture while Walker was abroad. In Paris the postmaster-general made a point of visiting "Jimmy" and made no secret of their friendship.

Therefore it is now believed that Walker has a warm spot in his heart for Farley. General opinion is that Walker will lay low during the campaign but that he will strongly support whoever is nominated for President by the Democrats. Thus, Walker's voice will not be heard politically until late in the campaign.

Miss Irene Tempert, ex-secretary to former City Treasurer Dolan, who told Finance Commission she had been threatened with embarrassment on the witness stand if she did not make a statement satisfactory to "the city."

HERES THE WILKEN FAMILY GIVING A NEIGHBOR A FRIENDLY NIP

Neighbors stopping by on a chilly night tell us there's nothing more comforting and grateful-like than a nip of our Family's Whiskey before setting out in the cold again. Being an extra mild and smooth it's just what you need when you're out there in the cold.

It's specially suited for taking a swallow or two straight—without any water or anything. If you've sampled it yourself, as more than likely you have, you've found that out without me remarking about it.

Harry E. Wilken, Sr.

Wait till you feel how easy our Family's Whiskey slithers down your throat!

THE WILKEN FAMILY BLENDED WHISKEY

Blended and Bottled by J. S. Finch & Co., Inc., Schenley, Pa.—Division of Schenley Products Co., Inc. FREE—A copy of The Wilken Family Cooking Album if you'll write me at The Maples, R. F. D. No. 3, Schenley, Pa. SUPERVISED BY THE WILKEN FAMILY

THREAT CHARGED BY DOLAN'S EX-SECRETARY.

Hearings will be resumed later this week in the finance commission's probe of the activities of the city law department.

The hull came after a hectic session during which a member of the law department was quoted as saying: "We don't give a damn about Dolan. We're out to get Curley and we won't stop until we get him behind the bars."

Edney E. Sullivan, former city clerk, attacked the law department, who was ousted Monday night by Mayor Hanford, made the charge after he had been recalled to the witness stand.

Sullivan attributed the statement to Assistant Corporation Counsel Walter F. Hennesberry and said that the statement was made concerning the purposes of the inquiry into the Legal Services Corporation.

SAYS DOYLE HEARD

Sullivan declared that the statement was made in the presence of a "Captain Doyle," not identified with the law department, but an outside citizen.

He further charged that Representative Christian A. Hertz's head statement in exclusive night clubs disqualified him for the position of chairman of the "special committee" raising funds to purchase information for the prosecution of the Dolan case.

Sullivan said that at a conference with Mr. Roosevelt, when the latter was in judgment over Walker during the famous Hennesberry investigation in Albany, which culminated in Walker's resignation as mayor of New York after seven years in that office.

FRIENDLY WITH FARLEY

Walker at about the same time—later—developed a grudge against Al Smith. He felt Smith, having his personal and political friends should have "come to the front" for him.

Farley came into the picture while Walker was abroad. In Paris the postmaster-general made a point of visiting "Jimmy" and made no secret of their friendship.

Therefore it is now believed that Walker has a warm spot in his heart for Farley. General opinion is that Walker will lay low during the campaign but that he will strongly support whoever is nominated for President by the Democrats. Thus, Walker's voice will not be heard politically until late in the campaign.

Miss Irene Tempert, ex-secretary to former City Treasurer Dolan, who told Finance Commission she had been threatened with embarrassment on the witness stand if she did not make a statement satisfactory to "the city."

HERES THE WILKEN FAMILY GIVING A NEIGHBOR A FRIENDLY NIP

Neighbors stopping by on a chilly night tell us there's nothing more comforting and grateful-like than a nip of our Family's Whiskey before setting out in the cold again. Being an extra mild and smooth it's just what you need when you're out there in the cold.

It's specially suited for taking a swallow or two straight—without any water or anything. If you've sampled it yourself, as more than likely you have, you've found that out without me remarking about it.

Harry E. Wilken, Sr.

Wait till you feel how easy our Family's Whiskey slithers down your throat!

THE WILKEN FAMILY BLENDED WHISKEY

Blended and Bottled by J. S. Finch & Co., Inc., Schenley, Pa.—Division of Schenley Products Co., Inc. FREE—A copy of The Wilken Family Cooking Album if you'll write me at The Maples, R. F. D. No. 3, Schenley, Pa. SUPERVISED BY THE WILKEN FAMILY

WALKER TO TAKE ACTIVE PART IN CAMPAIGN

By JAMES I. KILGALLEN International News Service Staff Correspondent

New York, Feb. 12 (AP)—Former Mayor James J. Walker is shunning politics at present but his friends predict he will be heard on national issues before the 1936 campaign comes to an end.

They say that "when the time comes to stand up and be counted," Jimmy Walker will make his position clear. It is believed he will go along with Tammany Hall and support the Democratic presidential nominee.

Walker himself today smilingly declined to discuss politics, saying he is devoting his time to reconstructing his private law practice.

Three famous personalities—President Roosevelt, Al Smith and Jim Farley—came into Jimmy Walker's mind when he pondered whom he will support when the time comes for him to "stand up and be counted," as Walker's friends say.

They find it hard in as how Walker can see eye to eye with Al Smith even though in 1928 Walker was a warm supporter of Smith for President.

They recall, too, that in the 1932 Democratic convention, Walker dramatically cast his vote for Smith when the "Stop Roosevelt" movement was in progress.

Later, Walker became at odds with Mr. Roosevelt, when the latter sat in judgment over Walker during the famous Hennesberry investigation in Albany, which culminated in Walker's resignation as mayor of New York after seven years in that office.

FRIENDLY WITH FARLEY

Walker at about the same time—later—developed a grudge against Al Smith. He felt Smith, having his personal and political friends should have "come to the front" for him.

Farley came into the picture while Walker was abroad. In Paris the postmaster-general made a point of visiting "Jimmy" and made no secret of their friendship.

Therefore it is now believed that Walker has a warm spot in his heart for Farley. General opinion is that Walker will lay low during the campaign but that he will strongly support whoever is nominated for President by the Democrats. Thus, Walker's voice will not be heard politically until late in the campaign.

Miss Irene Tempert, ex-secretary to former City Treasurer Dolan, who told Finance Commission she had been threatened with embarrassment on the witness stand if she did not make a statement satisfactory to "the city."

HERES THE WILKEN FAMILY GIVING A NEIGHBOR A FRIENDLY NIP

Neighbors stopping by on a chilly night tell us there's nothing more comforting and grateful-like than a nip of our Family's Whiskey before setting out in the cold again. Being an extra mild and smooth it's just what you need when you're out there in the cold.

It's specially suited for taking a swallow or two straight—without any water or anything. If you've sampled it yourself, as more than likely you have, you've found that out without me remarking about it.

Harry E. Wilken, Sr.

Wait till you feel how easy our Family's Whiskey slithers down your throat!

THE WILKEN FAMILY BLENDED WHISKEY

Blended and Bottled by J. S. Finch & Co., Inc., Schenley, Pa.—Division of Schenley Products Co., Inc. FREE—A copy of The Wilken Family Cooking Album if you'll write me at The Maples, R. F. D. No. 3, Schenley, Pa. SUPERVISED BY THE WILKEN FAMILY

ABSOLUTE CLEARANCE

Out and Out 40¢ to 60¢ in the dollar

Entire Stock of $115 to $165

RACCOON

An Outstanding Group at $73

Many originally $115 Some originally $135 A few originally $165

Savings of $42 to $92

THURSDAY at 9 A. M.

I. J. Fox, the Raccoon house of New England, holds a thrilling sale of New England's favorite fur . . . Raccoon! Our stocks must be cleared . . . because it is the I. J. Fox policy not to carry over merchandise into the next season. Costs and former prices have been forgotten. These fell furrowed, warm, long wearing fur coats at $73 won't last long . . . so better act fast!

Range choice regular and velvet Raccoons up to $275. Kipper of Sins Up to Size 46—But Not Every Size at Every Price. A SMALL DEPOSIT is all you need pay now. Then pay the balance conveniently on our famous BUDGET PAYMENT PLAN.

I. J. FOX America's Largest Furrier 411 WASHINGTON STREET OPEN FROM 9 A. M. UNTIL 7 P. M.

RACCOON

Smart, sporty, moulded-to-the-body, and swagger Raccoons with the new square cut Johnny collars. Most have imported tweed or Kasba cloth linings. $73

Ice Locks 5 Ships

IN Chesapeake

Norfolk, Va., Feb. 6 (AP)—The Coast Guard today reported five ships caught in Chesapeake Bay ice 40 miles south of Baltimore.

A message from the Alland cutter Mohawk said the Alland and three others were fast and required assistance. The Mohawk was proceeding to the assistance of the five.

BLOTTO! CASH AWARDS DAILY

The Blottos Are Coming Watch the BOSTON AMERICAN

JOKER IN BONUS BILL STARTS LOAN FLOOD

A "joker" in the new law for payment of the soldier's bonus in June has vastly complicated the Treasury department's financing problem. It was revealed here today.

The bonus payment law cancels all unpaid interest on bonus loans, but does not prohibit borrowing by veterans between now and June 15, when the baby bonds are to be issued.

Secretary of the Treasury Henry Morgenthau, it was learned, has started a national survey to determine how many veterans are going to take advantage of this option and to discourage such borrowing.

In the brief period since the payment law was passed last month borrowing on bonus certificates has increased by 50 per cent above normal for such a period.

If this interest-free borrowing continues, funds in the Treasury earmarked for veterans' loans will be exhausted in 60 days, it was said.

All that the veterans can gain is to get some of their money about three months ahead of time. Under the 1921 law they may borrow up to half the amount of their certificates. If they borrow and put the money at interest, they can earn only the small amount the money would earn between March and June.

Such borrowing, officials have pointed out, would stop the wheels of the machine which is being built to distribute the new baby bonds as quickly as possible and may prevent really needy veterans from getting small loans that they require immediately.

There are approximately 1,000,000 veterans with bonus certificates in the nation and $1,500 in Massachusetts.

Up until the payment law was enacted, fewer than 50 per cent in the nation had taken advantage of the loan provisions.

In Massachusetts where the total value of certificates is approximately $100,000,000, loans totaling $45,000,000 have been made to date. Nearly 175,000 separate loans have been made.

Secretary Morgenthau has been out and let Congress know how much money is needed to meet loan demands in the next few months. This has been recognized as an important phase of the general problem of financing the whole bonus payment.

Multiplication Is Vexation

By Berton Braley

We have too many governments
Which cause us bother and expense:

Towns, cities, villages and junctions
Quadruplicate each other's functions:

Thus multiplying soft positions
For all the local politicians,

Who regularly draw their pay
For getting in each other's way.

Each thickly padded payroll carries
Clerks, deputies and secretaries

And constables and cops and sheriffs
Boosting the tax rates and the tariffs.

And snarling things until the laws
Are full of tangles, holes and flaws.

How can we simplify this mess?
How can we make our burdens less.

And do away with these afflictions
Of contradicting jurisdictions?

I know the answer—so do you,
For all we voters need to do

Is just to cut out being asses.
And will we do so? We-el, perhaps!

CENSORSHIP DODGED

Von Wiegand Writes of War

Uncensored and giving the first clear and intimate picture of war-time Ethiopia and Addis Ababa, letters sent by Karl H. von Wiegand, noted foreign correspondent, to his daughter in New York, appear in the March Commonwealth. The letters, sent by the correspondent while he was officially covering the Ethiopian front, also present an interesting picture of Everett A. Colson, American adviser and private secretary to Emperor Haile Selassie.

Colson's office is in the Old Palace and natives, brandishing scimitar-like, curved swords, guard its approach.

"Guards with switches drive loitering Abyssinians away when they become too numerous," the correspondent says. "Opposite are four rocky cages, each containing a lion. Sometimes the lions roar. They are hungry. You are told that when the lions roar it means good luck for Ethiopia."

The letters, sent by the correspondent while he was officially covering the Ethiopian front, also present an interesting picture of Everett A. Colson, American adviser and private secretary to Emperor Haile Selassie.

Colson's office is in the Old Palace and natives, brandishing scimitar-like, curved swords, guard its approach.

"Guards with switches drive loitering Abyssinians away when they become too numerous," the correspondent says. "Opposite are four rocky cages, each containing a lion. Sometimes the lions roar. They are hungry. You are told that when the lions roar it means good luck for Ethiopia."

"At noon the street in front of Colson's little cottage is jammed with the cars of the correspondents and at six in the evening, if he hasn't yet come from the palace, Mrs. Colson has tea and excellent cake for everybody. He is a sick man, yet he struggles on and is most kind, patient and helpful to all."

3500 SEEK AID IN SECURING VETS' BONUS

By THE BONUS EDITOR

Applicants for bonus bonds help at the special office of the Boston Evening American and the Boston Sunday Advertiser, 294 Devonshire street, reached the total of 3500 today.

Scores of telephone calls and letters have been received at the office as to the number of days a veteran must have served to be eligible for the bonus.

If the veteran served 60 days or more between the period of April 8, 1917, and November 12, 1918, he is eligible to file for the bonus.

Veterans who have never made an original application are instructed to go to the Veterans' Bureau in the Federal Building.

VETERANS JOYFUL
In cases where a veteran has died either during action or since the end of the war dependents are entitled to file for his bonus if a cash settlement has never been made.

If a certificate has been issued to a veteran then his beneficiary is entitled to collect the amount of the bonus. If a loan was made on the certificate then his beneficiary can collect the balance.

Expressions of joy at the prospect of receiving bonus cash were on the faces of many veterans. Most of the veterans have their plans made as to how they will spend the money. Mortgage will be paid and repairs made on houses.

CASH FOR WEDDING
"You going to buy a baby carriage so my wife won't have to carry the baby around in her arms," is the intention of one veteran.

The money will enable another to continue his work on the invention of an automobile accessory.

"When I get the balance of my money my sweetheart and I are going to be married. We'll furnish the home and spend what is left for our honeymoon," said a veteran who asked that his name be withheld.

One man who came in to the office smiled as he finished filling out his application. His money will be used to send his youngest son to Arizona, to be treated for a lung ailment, he said.

American Bonus Bureau Open

The Boston Evening American and Boston Sunday Advertiser have set up quarters for aid to veterans eligible for the bonus.

Application blanks are available. Questions will be answered. Individual problems will be ironed out.

In a special office at 294 DEVONSHIRE STREET, there will be men qualified to aid the veteran obtain and fill out his application.

The Boston Evening American and Boston Sunday Advertiser office is conducted in co-operation with Colonel William J. Blake, regional director of the Veterans' Bureau in the Federal Building.

Veterans may inquire about regulations by telephone. The number is LIBERTY 3180. DO NOT USE ANY OTHER NUMBER.

Strike Holds Chile's Fleet in Port

Santiago, Chile, Feb. 5 (DNB)—The Chilean battle fleet, which was to have sailed for maneuvers last night, was ordered today to stay in Valparaiso as the strike that has paralyzed railway service through most of the country spread to other industries today.

Building and textile workers and sailors joined the anti-government walk-out this morning, threatening a repetition of the grave situation that gripped Chile in 1932.

2 BLENDS - 2 PRICES

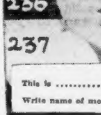

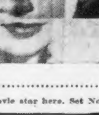

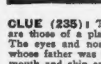

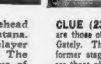

RED LABEL America's finest quality | BROWN LABEL High quality, low price

"SALADA" TEA

$3,000.00 IN CASH AWARDS

$1000.00 FIRST PRIZE

IN THE "MOVIE FACES" GAME

This is Write name of movie star here, Set No. 27

GLUE (235): The hair and forehead are those of a player born in Montana. The eyes and nose belong to a player whose father was an Army captain. The mouth and chin are those of a native of Bridgeport, Connecticut. They will appear in "Ship Cafe" and "Peter Ibbotson" at the Beacon Theatre, this week.

GLUE (238): The hair and forehead are those of a player whose real name is Gusty. The eyes and nose belong to a former stage star. The mouth and chin are those of a former student in English school. See them this week in "Ship Cafe" and "Peter Ibbotson" at the Beacon Theatre.

GLUE (241): The hair and forehead are those of a player schooled in New Rochelle. The eyes and nose are those of a taxidermist. The mouth and chin are those of a player born in Texas. See them in "Ship Cafe" and "Peter Ibbotson" at the Beacon Theatre, soon.

Who Are These Movie Players? Can You Put These Pictures Together Correctly and Name Them?

Those in Set No. 27 Are Among These

Shirley Temple	James Cagney	Gary Cooper
John Boles	Joe E. Brown	George Raft
Joan Gaynor	Marion Davies	Ann Harding
Ronald Colman	George Brent	Artine Judge
Warner Baxter	James Melton	Lynne Overman
George O'Brien	W. C. Fields	Red Sparks
Rochelle Hudson	Max West	Betty Grable
Clara Trevor	Claudette Colbert	Carl Brisson
Levorne Tibbett	George Grant	Gene Raymond
Joan Wilton	Bing Crosby	Ricardo Cortes
George Cline	Charlotte Granville	Ida Lupino
Rita Canino	Marlene Dietrich	Lionel Stander
Dick Powell	Carole Lombard	Harold Lloyd
Al Jolson

185 CASH AWARDS

1st Prize . . $1,000.00	5th Prize . . $50.00
2nd Prize . . 500.00	Next 10 awards $20 each 200.00
3rd Prize . . 200.00	Next 20 awards $10 each 200.00
4th Prize . . 100.00	Next 150 awards $5 each 750.00

TOTAL $3,000.00

Set No. 28 in Tomorrow's

BOSTON AMERICAN

Hold your pictures until you have ALL sets, Nos. 1 to 36—108 COMPLETE pictures in all. Last set, No. 36, appears Saturday, Feb. 15. Don't mail them to theatres—read the rules.

BACK COPIES AVAILABLE IF YOU MISSED SETS

Back numbers of the Boston Evening American containing sets of pictures in the game of "Movie Faces" may be obtained in the circulation department at 5 Winthrop Square, Boston, for two cents each. If sent by mail, three cents each.

Long Loaf or Whole Milk REC BIG 20 oz LOAF

Here is an extra saving this week in New England's popular prize bread. Baked fresh daily in our own ovens and delivered fresh every morning to your local First National Store. Made of the very finest ingredients skillfully baked to give it a true homelike flavor. Try a loaf at this thrifty price.

FIRST NATIONAL STORES

Styles for Young Bostonian Revealed by Fashion Judges

MORN, NOON AND NIGHT APPAREL

A perfect wardrobe for a day in the life of young Boston suburbanites was selected today at the fifth session of the Fashion Congress of America in the French room of the Ritz-Carlton Hotel.

Morning shopping or marketing provided the subject for the first group of smart ensembles. Sitting was the motif of the second. Then on through the day from lunch at the Country Club to committee meetings and an afternoon of bridge to the social hour, dinner and evening festivities.

Mrs. James R. Carter, Junior League and Vincent Club member, was chairman of today's committee of fashion judges. Mrs. Carter was frequently a model herself at charity shows during her debutante and post-debutante days. She retains her keen interest in clothes and is one of Boston's most well-dressed young matrons.

Others on her committee included: Mrs. Bertram Greene of Charles street, Mrs. James H. Marx of Southboro, Mrs. H. T. Kingsbury, Jr., of North Andover, Mrs. William English of Lindall place, Mrs. Charles Gowing of Mount Vernon street, Mrs. C. Perry Collins and Mrs. Benjamin A. G. Thorndike of Dedham, Mrs. Robert Gowing and Mrs. George P. Baker, Jr.

Today's models were Miriam Little, Miss Frederic Sargent, Miss Dorothy Watters and Miss Frances Cox. Stimulating discussions about Boston's standards of good taste in dress floated back and across the Fashion Congress tables as the attractive magnificents walked slowly past. Clothes which were awarded the Fashion Congress tag were photographed after the luncheon and will be published throughout the coming week in the pages of the Boston Evening American and Boston Sunday Advertiser.

Mrs. James R. Carter, Junior League and Vincent Club member, chairman of committee of judges at Fashion Congress of America in Ritz-Carlton.

Heads
Fashion
Arbiters
Here

4 'COLLECTORS' PLEAD GUILTY

Four Greater Boston men who yesterday went on trial charged with conspiracy to steal in connection with an alleged collection agency fraud, today changed their plea to guilty in Middlesex Superior court.

On recommendation of Assistant District Attorney Frank G. Volpe, Judge Thomas H. Drew ordered the men to make full restitution and placed them on probation for two years.

He warned them that they must not engage directly or indirectly in the collection business. The men are Samuel Goldmeer, 43, Winthrop street, Winthrop, president of the Merchandise Protective Bureau; Benjamin Jacobson, 12, Cordenburg street, Malden; Gustave F. Rylin, 28, Commonwealth avenue; and Stoffer A. Larson, 41, Warren avenue, Roxbury.

Miss Lee Stone, 25, Mills street, Malden, was found not guilty when the court was advised she was a stenographer and office assistant.

Sedan Is Stolen

Salem, Feb. 5.—Police are making a widespread search for a sedan that was stolen from the garage of John Mauphe on the Salisbury Causeway. It had no registration plates.

CONSTITUTIONAL CHANGES

"Nor have I ever entertained a thought of promoting any alteration in it (the Constitution) but such as the people themselves, in the course of their experience, should see and feel to be necessary or expedient, and by their representatives in Congress and the state Legislatures, according to the Constitution itself, adopt and ordain."

—PRESIDENT JOHN ADAMS Inaugural Address, March 4, 1797.

Stamp Authority Will Speak Here

A stamp authority, Captain Tim Healy, of New York, will speak tomorrow night at the Gardner Auditorium in the State House of the "Popular Side of Stamps." The address will be in connection with Harvard University's new course in educational philately.

Westford Boy, 14, Gone, Hunt Begun

Westford, Feb. 5.—Police Chief John F. Sullivan led a volunteer posse today in a search of the woods in this vicinity for Amos Vincent Pollard, 14, missing Westford Academy student.

The boy has been missing since yesterday morning when he left his home to take a bus to school on Carville road, as was his custom. He did not take the bus and did not appear at school. Search in Lowell failed to reveal his whereabouts and it is feared he went into the woods and was lost. State police are aiding in the hunt.

The boy's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Amos Voss, well-to-do residents of Old Lowell road.

All Lost and Found Ads in the American and Advertiser are broadcast, free of charge, over Station WCOF, from the Copley Place.

Norma's Attorney Under Arrest

Arrested today on a charge of larceny, George A. Douglas, 38, of Blue Hill Parkway, Dorchester, who was attorney for Norma Milon, pleaded not guilty in municipal court and was released on his own recognizance for a hearing a week from today.

Douglas was arrested upon the complaint of George E. Kneary, attorney of Everett, who succeeded him as guardian of the estate of Henry H. Nelson, now an inmate of the Graton State Hospital for the insane. Suit for the recovery of $10,214, which Douglas is alleged to have appropriated for his own personal use from the Nelson estate, was begun more than a year ago. Douglas was ordered by the court to make an accounting and restitution, and when he failed to do so was disbanded from Massachusetts courts.

30 FACE QUIZ IN MABEY CASE

A notebook containing the names of 30 men and women became the subject of police investigation today in connection with the alleged poison playing of Mrs. Mildred Basse, 28, of Dorchester.

The notebook was found among the belongings of Stephen L. Mabey, 32, of Weymouth, who is held at Charlestown jail on a charge of murder. Police officials said the persons listed in the notebook probably bought "race track tips" from Mabey. Some of them will be questioned.

Miss Corinne Nicholas, 30, of Back Bay, instigated by remarks of Mabey to the effect that she was a friend of his, called abruptly in Woonsocket, R. I., today. Miss Nicholas reported to Captain John F. Beaver of the Woonsocket police that she was not "missing," did not consider herself a friend of his, and that she was not interested in Mabey's difficulties.

Deserted By Minister, Wife Freed

Charging that her minister-husband, Fred S. Leathers, deserted her for the love of a young state ward, Mrs. Jeanne C. M. Leathers of Melrose today won an uncontested divorce in Middlesex Court.

Mrs. Leathers told the court she received letters from her husband after he left her, Oct. 28, 1933, in which, she alleged, he admitted his affection for another.

The wife testified that shortly after a girl came to live with them at Melrose in the summer of 1933, her husband and the girl left together.

The following October, her husband deserted her, she said, and went with the girl to Florida.

"I have seen him once since the desertion," she said, "and he told me it was impossible to live with any longer. In a letter I received from him, he acknowledged his guilt."

The couple were married May 7, 1929 at Wakefield, when the minister was 60 years old.

Wants Elliott's Jobs at $5 Each

John Malcolm Macaulay, former sewer commissioner of public welfare, today offered to execute convicted murderers for $5 each or at a saving of $145 on each execution.

He made the offer while appearing before a legislative committee in favor of his bill to appoint a state executioner and an assistant.

"It's like a job like that," said Macaulay.

11 Nations Strike to Put Down New Red Menace

Geneva, Feb. 5 (AP)—Alleged Communist activities brought raids, labor demonstration and official denunciation in Europe, Mexico and South America today. Five nations in southeastern Europe—Hungary, Bulgaria, Yugoslavia, Rumania and Austria—struck simultaneously amid warnings of a "new red menace" and attempts to rouse the public against an increase of Soviet Russian influence in the valley of the Danube.

Hungary crushed an organization allegedly Communist and led by Bela Kun, who headed a Communist regime in 1919. In Bulgaria 50 persons were arrested in a series of raids and 19 typewriters were put on trial for reputed Communist activity.

Rumania, Yugoslavia and Austrian police made many raids. Some sections of the Austrian press indicated belief Russia was seeking to replace Italy as the dominant power of the southeastern area, taking advantage of Italy's operations in East Africa.

SCREEN TAPPS BY ART MOGER

NOW IN ITS SECOND BIG WEEK AT THE RKO-KENTON THEATRE

Go West, young man! At least "The Ghost Goes West" at the RKO Keith Memorial Theatre, where throngs of people have forced the management to extend its engagement another week. One of the principal characters as they appear in this intriguing picture are drawn above. Do you know them?

Of course, one of the characters is a well known radio celebrity, who keeps giving people a chance and the "gang," too. Who is he? Can you answer the question pertaining to the career of one of the above drawn Hollywood stars?

Unscramble the batch of mixed ones. When properly arranged they will spell the first and last names of the above drawn Hollywood players. Mail your entire week's solutions to: The Screen Mixup Editor, Boston Evening American, Boston, Mass. A complete set of six cartoons (Monday through Saturday, inclusive) will win you an award, as offered by the Boston Evening American.

Neatness, accuracy, promptness, and originality in presentation are deciding factors in sharing in the many weekly cash and theater ticket awards.

Today is the third in this week's series. Be sure you answer the daily question pertaining to the career of one of your Hollywood favorites, as they are drawn above.

A Glass
of
PICKWICK
refreshes mind
and body.

Prove it to yourself.

PICKWICK
ALE

Insist that your Ale be drawn from the official PICKWICK tap

Also in Bottles
at your Local Dealer
2 Bottles 25c (contents)

Brewed by HAFFENREFFER & CO., INC., Boston, Mass., Brewers Since 1870

Cash for ink spots!
Watch the
BOSTON
AMERICAN

805 MILLIONS FOR INTEREST ON U. S. DEBTS

Washington, Feb. 5 (AP)—The public debt of the United States is expected to reach a new record of $8,050,000,000 by the end of the fiscal year ending June 30, 1936, according to a report of the Treasury department today.

The report states that the total amount of interest on the public debt for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1936, will be $805,000,000, or 4.1 percent of the total amount of the debt.

The report also states that the total amount of principal payments on the public debt for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1936, will be $1,000,000,000, or 12.5 percent of the total amount of the debt.

M'ADOO SHIFT AIDED ALLIES

Washington, Feb. 5 (AP)—A sudden change in American policy in the World War in the United States Treasury department today put off the aid to the allies in the Pacific.

The report states that the Treasury department has decided to postpone the aid to the allies in the Pacific until the end of the fiscal year ending June 30, 1936.

The report also states that the Treasury department has decided to postpone the aid to the allies in the Pacific until the end of the fiscal year ending June 30, 1936.

Grocery's Silver Gleams

Martha Lee, the Boston Evening American Home Economic expert, with the 25 pieces of silver service for six offered at all Economy grocery stores this week.

Birthday Gift For Patrons

The Boston Evening American is offering a birthday gift to its patrons. The gift is a 25-piece silver service for six, which is offered to all patrons who have been with the paper for at least one year.

Cheers and Boo Greet MacDonald

London, Feb. 5 (AP)—A mixed reception was given to the new Prime Minister, Stanley Baldwin, today. Cheers and boos were heard as he entered the House of Commons.

IL DUCE ORDERS HOME DEFENSE

Rome, Feb. 5 (AP)—The Italian government today ordered all able-bodied men to register for home defense.

The report states that the Italian government has decided to organize a home defense force to protect the country in the event of an invasion.

Lansbury Asserts War Nears For All Europe

London, Feb. 5 (AP)—George Lansbury, leader of the Labour party, today asserted that a general war is now inevitable.

Lansbury stated that the situation in Europe is so serious that a general war is now inevitable.

ACCIDENTS CUT 1000 IN MONTH

A reduction of more than 1000 accidents and 15 deaths in December, 1935, as compared with the same month in 1934, was disclosed today by the Registrar General.

The Registrar General stated that the reduction in accidents was due to a combination of factors, including a decrease in the number of vehicles on the roads.

15 Bettors Fined

Whitewater, Feb. 5 (AP)—Fifteen men, arrested last night in a raid on an alleged horse betting establishment at Whitewater, paid fines totaling $210 in district court today.

FUND DEADLINE NEAR

Reminding his workers that time is passing and the deadline is near, the 1936 Community Fund campaign today urged them to speed up their efforts.

The report states that the deadline for the 1936 Community Fund campaign is near, and that the workers are urged to speed up their efforts.

"Thank You," Bette Davis!

This is a facsimile of the telegram sent by Bette Davis, famous screen star, thanking the Boston Evening American for its drive safety campaign. Bette Davis is now appearing in "Dangerous" at the Modern Theater.

Rettich Witness To Get Liberty

Tracy A. Stone, a witness in a murder case, today applied for his liberty.

The report states that Tracy A. Stone, a witness in a murder case, today applied for his liberty.

U. S. BANS NEW DEADLY DOPE

Washington, Feb. 5 (AP)—Discovery of a narcotic so powerful that its manufacture has been prohibited was disclosed today in a report of hearings before a House subcommittee.

The report states that the discovery of a new narcotic has led to the ban on its manufacture.

ANNIVERSARY SALE

All This Week

TAKE HOME A COUPLE POUNDS OF

Nan Cabot CANDIES

ALWAYS SOLD FOR 60c THE POUND

DURING THIS WEEK 45c a pound.

February 2nd to 9th, inclusive

Boston Stores: 228 TREMONT ST., 224 FRIEND ST., 23A SCHOOL ST.

Lynn Store: 202 MONROE ST.

We'll pay you Double for your Trouble

IN PAYMENT AS FOLLOWS

NUMBER	REPAYMENT	AMOUNT	JOHNS
1
2
3
4
5
6
7
8
9
10

ESTABLISHED 1900

PAY DOUBLE YOUR MONEY BACK...plus postage

P. Lionillard Company No. 350189 DEC -4G 1935

GUARANTY TRUST COMPANY NEW YORK

TO THE ORDER OF: JOHN DOE

Richard Lee Edmund Brown

When?

Scottish, Feb. 5 (AP)—Tele Knight, the new board member, was placed when he received a statement from a former company. The statement said that his automobile payment would be due February 11. "I'll be a pleasure," Knight declared.

You could pay $1.50 and not get whiskey so good!

You don't have to pay big money to get good whiskey. Try any brand as you please. Under $1.50 per pint you'll find none as good as Crab Orchard. It's native Kentucky bourbon. It's straight as expensive whiskey. It's aged in wood full fifteen months. It's full 93 proof—glowing and genial, naturally brilliant and heady. Lower priced than ever. Eight times as many people are buying it now as bought it last year. Have you tried Crab Orchard lately? All bars and stores. Accept no substitutes.

Insist on 93 Proof

Crab Orchard

KENTUCKY STRAIGHT BOURBON WHISKY

© 1936, The A.M.A. Division of National Distillers Products Corporation, Louisville, Ky.
Exclusive Distributor, OLD BOSTON IMPORTERS, Boston, Mass.

if "Double-Mellow" Old Golds don't win you!

THERE are no strings to this offer. It is open to everyone... and it is backed by America's oldest tobacco house (successfully in business 175 years).

We've put into Double-Mellow Old Gold cigarettes the finest tobacco the world markets afford. Prize crop tobacco, the pick of domestic and imported.

Words can't give you the thrill of these prize crop tobaccos. But a few double-mellow cigarettes will.

We invite you to smoke half a pack. You don't risk a penny. Either Double-Mellow Old Golds must make good... OR WE WILL... (and double!)

READ THE OFFER.

ALL OLD GOLD CIGARETTES NOW ON SALE, NATION-WIDE, ARE DOUBLE-MELLOW

No change in the package... BUT BOY! wait 'til you taste these DOUBLE-MELLOW cigarettes

DOUBLE-MONEY-BACK OFFER

as made to smokers since Oct. 6, 1935

TAKE a sporting chance on a pack of Double-Mellow Old Golds. Smoker of the cigarettes. If you don't say they're the finest you ever tasted... mail the package wrapper with the ten remaining cigarettes to us, at any time before May 1st, 1936, and we'll send you double the price you paid for the full package, plus postage.

P. Lionillard Company

Established 1760

119 West 40th Street, New York City

Old Gold CIGARETTES

PRIZE CROP TOBACCO

UNDS
SENT TO U. S.

Buy Stocks | RECORDED
as Well as | WITH SEC

Goods

The value of merchandise imported into the United States in 1935 showed an increase for the

By International News Service

Washington, Feb. 5.—Nearly 300 "gift transfers" were recorded with SEC in December, the last month before the new and higher gift taxes came effective, the commission reported to

Imports were valued at $2,048,000,000 in 1935 as compared with $1,655,000,000 in 1934 and with the depression's low of $1,323,000,000 in 1932. This increase in imports was

Exports were valued at $2,282,000-000 in 1935 as against $2,133,000,000 in 1932. The value of both exports and imports in 1935, however, was less than half the value in the pre-

The recovery since 1932 in the value of merchandise exports has not been accompanied by a corresponding rise in the quantity of goods exported. The increase in value has been chiefly a reflection of the rise in prices. The value in 1935 was 41.7 per cent higher than in 1932, but the quantity showed an

As compared with 1929, however, the quantity of goods exported made a less unfavorable comparison than the value since the price val in 1935 was lower than in 1929. At the same time, the quantity of goods exported was 42 per cent lower than in 1929, and consequently the value of exports attained before full recovery was attained.

Although the value of merchandise exported in 1935 exceeded the value of imports, the value of exports fell far below the amount which foreign countries might have

Conn. gave 450,000 cement, port Brase Co.; William F. E. Brown, Jr., gave 500,000; New Mexico: Bietri Mays, Inc., gave 500,000; San Francisco: McGraw, San Jose, gave 2,000,000; California: Caterpillar Tractor Co., H. A. Jackson, New York: gave 2,500 port, Chicago: the Mercantile Tool Co.; Edward H. Jermey City, gave 2,000 cement; Colgate, Palmolive Peet Co., gave 2,000,000; Philadelphia: 800,000 cement, Collins

Corporation, gave 5,000 common.
Publishing Co.; August Heck
New York City, gave 2000 com
Theodore H. ...

Foreign counts thus had a total credit of $413,000,000, or nearly twice the value of merchandise exported from the United States. The reason why merchandise exports were no larger, is the fact that $84,000,000 of foreign funds went into such items as American securities and bank balances in this country.

Transactions

ION TOR	3-18	3-18	3-18
Pen Dry Dock	2	9	1
tel GMA	6	A	6
GMA	6	A	6
GMA pt	6	0	9
Liaison A	8	N	3
Liaison B	8	N	3
Prof. H. J.	44	42	6
Prof. H. J.	1	1	1
Rosa M. (2)	8	M	8
Sch. (pt. 1)	3	J	3
H. I. Rev. pt.	80	80	1

S	1947 H			J. O. Rand, St. Louis, gave
B	Fine Fox		R 16
B	Foot B f 60	25		common, International Shoe
A	Lined H	18	1 1/2
R	Red pig	25	2 1/2	Henry R. Lane, Boston,
B	Red pig	25	2 1/2	1200 common, Kendall Co; S
"ml	Bored yes	1	1	H. Kress, New York City.
"rt	Vandy (1, 2)	4	3 1/2	3,540 common S. H. Kress
"rt	Wal. Pigee	4	3 1/2

[illegible]

Syst Vamp ..	76	25	26
" " "	5	9	8
" " "	21	21	21
*Wet Tabasco v/c fic)	21	21	77
-Low Chd	21	21	77
" " "	21	21	77
Wright Hens (good)	84	84	84
Egg-dividing, as first sale since eggs were laid - 1 egg per hen, at an extra or extra, blacking.	84	84	84
In Egg'd last year's flyable in stock	84	84	84
Declined or paid so far this year; un-	84	84	84
declared dividend paid this year; return	84	84	84

berry, New York City, g&w, common, J. J. Newberry Co.
Newberry gave $200 common and Myrtle H.
Berry, Ridgewood, N. J., gave common, J. J. Newberry Co.;
Macaulay, Detroit, gave;
common, Packard Motor Car
Co. R. Dreupre Sr., Cincinnati
Proctor & Gamble Co.
Joseph Wilshire, New York

GOVERNMENTS

	High Low	Low
France 41.4 47.2	113.14	115.18
Germany 41.4 47.2	113.14	115.18
Italy 44.4 54.4	113.14	115.18
Spain 3.4 46.4	100.0	100.0

Trans 1	3	41	108	14	105	11	108	1
Trans 2	3	44	45	145	70	105	26	105
Trans 3	3	46	52	144	104	2	104	2
Trans 4	3	46	48	103	13	103	12	103
Trans 5	3	51	55	103	1	102	20	103
Trans 6	3	55	60	100	15	100	2	100

Profit Lower

For the year ended Dec. 31, 1939, Western Massachusetts Company reports net profit of $1,000,000.

	Actual 1934	4 Prev		$7.54 to $2.03 per share of
	div	Bd	Askr'd	div
Re Rate Dep & Tr*	$214,250	—	240	$7.54 shares of stock
Re Nat'l	2,475	40	47	standing. This compared with
Re Exotic	1	—	—	profit in 1934 of $2,016,331, or
National Rock and	2	60	65	per share and with net in 1935
Nat'l Nat'l	1	—	23	of $1,995,360 or $6.01 per share.
King and Tr*	8,500	—	130
	1,275	—	140

to be sold must first be offered to directors of bank. cPaid $1 in 1935 60 cents in 1936 and a stock dividend of 10 per cent, replacing preferred stock retired.

Commonwealth Savings Corp.
ern Massachusetts Companies constituent companies since balance available for retire-
reserves, dividends and surplus
$2,804,601, compared with $273,000
in 1934 and $2,784,672 in 1935

ADVICE on LOVE and MARRIAGE by BEATRICE FARFAX

Widowed Mother at Eighty Finds Happiness and Peace in Poor House

By BEATRICE FARFAX

Few houses are so much to be desired as the one in which a widow lives. The widow who has found happiness and peace in a poor house is a rare sight. The widow who has found happiness and peace in a poor house is a rare sight.

The chance was a real one. Everything was going to be all right. The widow who has found happiness and peace in a poor house is a rare sight. The widow who has found happiness and peace in a poor house is a rare sight.

A few weeks ago a woman of 80 wrote me from a municipal home for the aged at the corner of Worcester. She has five children—two sons and three daughters—and she has tried to live with each of them in vain.

Finally, in desperation she came away. In the middle of the night, she boarded a bus, and rode to the city. She didn't know where. She didn't care. She was just glad to get away from home.

My answer to her was simple. I told her to go to the city and find a place where she could live. I told her to go to the city and find a place where she could live.

My answer to her was simple. I told her to go to the city and find a place where she could live. I told her to go to the city and find a place where she could live.

My answer to her was simple. I told her to go to the city and find a place where she could live. I told her to go to the city and find a place where she could live.

"Your Figure, Madame."

By IDA JEAN KAIN

ON THE sturdy side of thirty, pounds and chins are not to be despised as lightly as they seem. Pleading roundness has a way of turning into dangerous curves and double chins.

Flattering furs may cover up a multitude of chins, but spring is just around a couple of corners. So let's chin awhile. Right now is the time to tone and firm lazy throat muscles.

Exercise is the restorative. Pound the muscles back to their normal tone and the throat will naturally become more youthful. It takes a long time to get rid of a throat exercise, and so that reason lovely throats are so scarce always means effort.

The same treatment goes for all chins. To increase circulation and improve muscle tone. Application of hot and cold water to stimulate circulation should precede the exercise. Now, get on a warm muscle oil or skin food. You can make it yourself if you wish, by using two parts melted cocoa butter to one part mineral oil. Before its application the skin must be thoroughly cleansed. This operation is excellent for the face.

Increased circulation through each exercise doing such things now goes through the complete set of the first few days. Make the movement easy so that the proper muscles are brought into play, but avoid strain or tension.

When the throat is too thin the skin sags into creases, and when it is too fat it causes trouble. The fat gets you both comfort and comfort.

In the throat is too thin the skin sags into creases, and when it is too fat it causes trouble. The fat gets you both comfort and comfort.

Home Beauty Ritual Made Easy

Simple Facial Massage Renews Firmness and Vigor in Muscles

By DONNA GRACE

WHILE most of our beauty work may be done at home by ourselves, we must not feel that we may be doing just as well as if the work were done at a beauty salon.

Your beautician expects you to keep up all treatments at home. That is the reason for the creams and other beauty aids ready for home use, but they know you should go to a shop, from time to time for a real professional treatment.

Three experts have had years of training and experience and know every phase of the work, so do not feel that it is an extravagance to make frequent visits to a reliable shop.

The facial massage movement for home work may be simple, and if you have my method you may keep your skin refined and nice. The back, however, needs about the same treatment you give the face, especially for the formal gown, and it is difficult to manipulate the back muscles by reaching around the shoulders.

Things in a facial as the right manipulation over the muscles at the back of the neck will relax the whole set of face and neck muscles.

Face and neck exercises will also relieve the tension of these muscles, and they should be done every day whether we go to a shop or not.

Mrs. Beekman on Good Manners

ENGAGEMENT PARTY Dear Mrs. Beekman: I would like to have my engagement announced at a party and would like to know how to go about it.

Who should make the plans—the girl's parents or both the parents and the groom's parents? What time should the party be held? Should there be a separate party for each set of parents?

Send announcements to friends? What time should the party be held? Should there be a separate party for each set of parents?

Send announcements to friends? What time should the party be held? Should there be a separate party for each set of parents?

Send announcements to friends? What time should the party be held? Should there be a separate party for each set of parents?

Given in Marriage

AVIS GETS OFF TO A GOOD START IN HER "BAITING"

By ADELE GARRISON

AS I WALKED with Hugh Grantland the few steps which separated us from Noel, Mary and Avis Arlen, I had the queerest feeling made up of remorse and alarm.

"If this is what you want, Miss Avis Arlen is going to have the ruin of her life," he had just said in answer to my request that he monopolize the girl during the short sojourn with us of Noel and Mary.

What was I letting him in for, this old friend whose chivalry and devotion never had failed me since the time of our first association in the wartime secret service? Noel and Mary.

My old hands were tied now. I reminded myself sternly. I could not rescind the plea I had given him. I could only add a warning of any kind.

AVIS GETS STARTED As we came to the group, I saw that Hugh's diagnosis of Noel's was the tantalizing, devilish game some women play so adeptly, that of pretending to be jealous, and yet permitting a feeling of reality to invest their foolery.

She did not raise her eyes as Hugh and I came up, but I knew that she was aware of our approach. Slowly she took her hands from Noel's sleeve, and turned to me.

AT LAST I'VE FOUND THE BEST WAY TO GET CLOTHES SNOWY

For tub washing you'll say, "grand!" SOAKS clothes whiter—safely

TO YOU do not have a washing machine to help make your Mondays easier—then by all means you are as young as the Rinsos. For Rinsos' creamy, active suds and out-dirt-gone clothes snow and bright without scrubbing or boiling.

AMERICA'S BIGGEST-SELLING PACKAGE SOAP

Dr. Copeland: Halitosis a Common Sign of Physical Disorder

By ROYAL S. COPELAND, M. D.

HALITOSIS, the polite name for bad breath, is a very common complaint. In and of itself, it is not a disease; it is merely a symptom or a sign of some physical disorder.

Too many believe that a mouth wash or dentifrice of some sort will correct bad breath. As a matter of fact, it serves merely to cover up the odor, or to replace it with a more agreeable one.

FLOYD GIBBONS' PAGE OF THRILLS AND MYSTERY

The House of a Friend

Girl Meets a Strange Hospitality and a Gripping Adventure

By FLOYD GIBBONS

HELLO EVERYBODY:

Sometimes it's your best friends that get you into the worst troubles. Take Cecile Saul of New York City as a typical instance. Cecile had a friend once—and not so very long ago, either—who got her into the worst jam of her entire life. It wasn't the friend's fault either. She probably thought she was doing Cecile a favor.

Cecile's friend had a sister. There's the nub of the whole situation. The sister had had a nervous breakdown and was confined to her bed. And when she needed the ministrations of a trained nurse, her sister—Cecile's friend—immediately thought of Cecile.

Cecile was—and is—a trained nurse. She was engaged to take care of the sick woman, and it wasn't a very pleasant job, either. "The woman wasn't a very congenial person," Cecile says, "but I was one of the few people who understood her. Hence, she had implicit confidence in me."

As a matter of fact, the sick gal was mighty uncongenial. She was a large woman of about middle age, weighing 200 pounds, and powerfully built. She was sensitive about her illness, and that made her reticent and hard to talk to. Her sister—Cecile's friend—lived in the house with them, and that helped to cheer the place up—when she was around. But more often than not she went out in the evening, leaving Cecile and her patient alone.

It was on just such an evening—a chilly night in September, 1934—that Cecile's big adventure took place. Her friend went out for the evening, seeing a show at the movie around the corner. The sick woman was asleep, so on Cecile thought. Cecile herself was reading a book, when all of a sudden she looked up and saw her patient rise from the bed. She had a peculiar expression on her face, and she came toward Cecile, saying: "You stole my husband and I'm going to kill you."

"I started backing away," says Cecile, "perpetrator with fright because, in a flash, it had come to me that she had gone mad. When I backed into a wall I just stood there because I was too frightened to cry out or run."

The woman came on toward Cecile, 200 pounds heavy, and looking at least twice that as she towered over the nurse, thrusting clawing hands out to grasp her. Her eyes had gone glassy and foam oozed from the straitjacket determined all of her mouth. "I tried to think fast," Cecile says. "At first I thought I could smother her and get her back to bed. But that didn't work. Her mind had gone completely. So completely that she didn't understand anything I said. All she had in it was that fixed notion that I was her rival for her husband's affections, and that to kill me would be her revenge."

"She came nearer and nearer. Finally, her hands were on my throat. She was so powerful heavier than I, and about four inches taller. And she possessed the super-strength of a lunatic. The thought came into my mind that this was not a very pleasant way of dying. I could think then of a good many more agreeable ends than being choked to death by a mad woman. But just about the time I felt that I was going to have the pleasure of meeting with either St. Peter or the Devil, a miracle happened."

The miracle was just the opening of the door. It swung wide, and in came Cecile's girl friend—the sick woman's sister, who just a few minutes before had left for the movie. Luckily for Cecile, she had seen that movie before—had turned right around and come back home.

The girl ran over and in an instant what had happened. Also she was a woman with a lot of that stuff called "presence of mind." She understood the super-strength that insane people seem to acquire—know how futile it would be to try to fight her off. There was no time to lose in calling for help, so she went immediately into action.

There was a large picture hanging on the wall right by the door. The girl jumped up, brought it down on the mad woman's head. The mad woman fell in a heap on the floor—unconscious.

That's all Cecile remembered for a while. Then she came to again, and a doctor was helping her. They told her later that the too good sort of best her mind over the incident—had become hysterical and had to be quieted with a hypodermic.

"It is quite a while since that happened," says Cecile, "and the woman is on the road to recovery. She was very sorry last week of the attempt to take my life, and she felt very sorry to think of all the grief she had caused me."

"But believe you me, it will be many years before I stop dreaming of an ugly, distorted, foaming mouth, glassy eyes, disheveled hair, and hard hands pinning me to the wall and choking me while an even harder voice cries: 'I'll kill you! I'll kill you! You stole my husband!'"

Well, personally, I like to dream a little. I'd like to dream that every one of the you boys and girls is somewhere on the other side of the newspaper and sent me your adventure stories. Then I'd like to wake up and find that it was true. How about it? Tomorrow I'll tell you another great yarn. Until then—SWEET DREAMS!

Join X-9ers; Get Your Badge

Become a member of the X-9 Club. Write your name, class, number, city or town on plain paper and send it to the editor of the Boston Evening American. A 6-cent stamp will be paid for handling of badge.

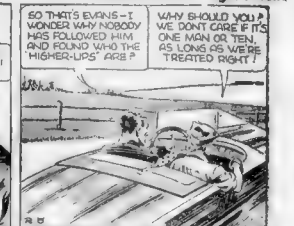

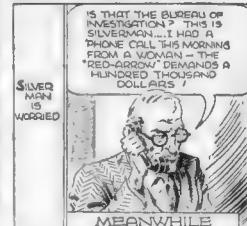

By return mail you will receive your card and a new shiny badge. Send your application to SECRET AGENT X-9, BOSTON EVENING AMERICAN, Post Office Box 9096.

Floyd Gibbons wants to hear from you. America's Ace Headlines Hunter and Adventurer is gathering together all adventures from all over Boston and its suburbs into a great, city-wide Adventure Club. Anyone who has ever had a thrill is eligible, and YOU can join, simply by sending Floyd a letter telling him about it. If your story is printed, you receive a ten dollar check in the next mail. And a hundred dollar bill goes out to the writer of the best story of the month.

HOW TO WIN
$100.00
And Membership in The Floyd Gibbons Adventurers' Club

YOUR STORY MUST BE TRUE. That's the only rule to remember. Everyone is eligible, and anyone who has ever had a thrill can compete. Don't worry about how well you can write or spell. Floyd will collaborate with you and whip your story into shape. Just write down the facts of your most thrilling adventure and mail it to Floyd Gibbons, care of the Boston Evening American, 5 Winthrop square, Boston. Keep a copy of your story as NO STORY CAN BE RETURNED. Do not send valuable pictures or souvenirs. Just send the facts.

SECRET AGENT X-9

TIM TYLER'S FLYING LUCK

(Follow Tim Tyler in the Big Comic Section of the Sunday Advertiser)

RED BARRY

(Follow Red Barry in the Big Comic Section of the Sunday Advertiser)

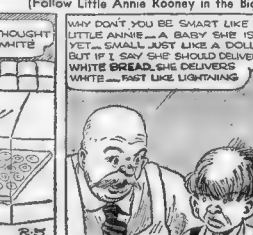

MANDRAKE, THE MAGICIAN

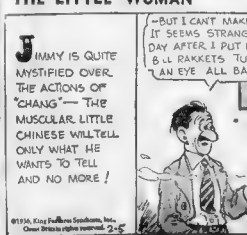

LITTLE ANNIE ROONEY

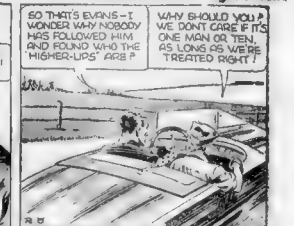

(Follow Little Annie Rooney in the Big Comic Section of the Sunday Advertiser)

THE LITTLE WOMAN

A "Gentlemen's" Agreement

A Stopped Bullet

A Trick Up His Sleeve

When Strangers Meet

Louie That Dope

On That Same Fist

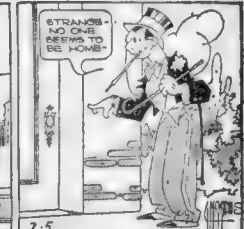

THIMBLE THEATRE, Starring POPEYE

BRINGING UP FATHER

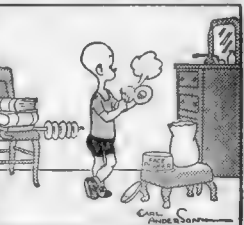

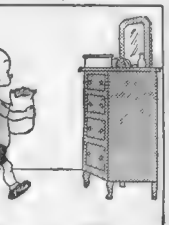

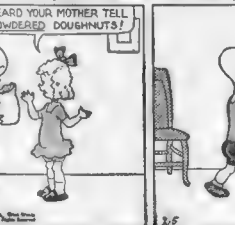

(Follow Jiggs and Maggie in the Big Comic Section of the Sunday Advertiser)

There's a Reason

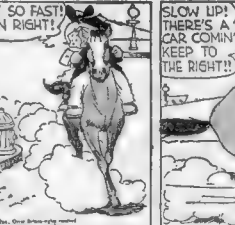

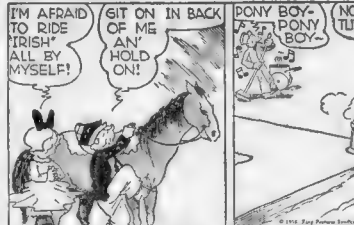

HENRY

(Follow Henry in the Big Comic Section of the Sunday Advertiser)

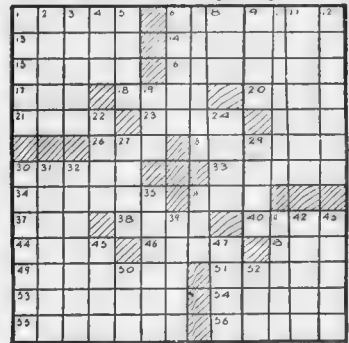

He Aims to Please

JUST KIDS

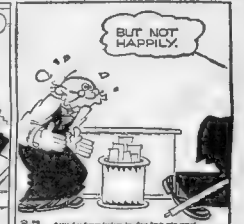

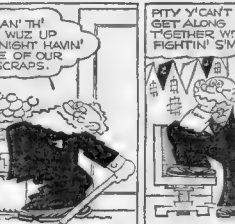

Auto-Suggestion!

CROSS-WORD PUZZLE By Eugene Sheffer

- HORIZONTAL
- Claw
 - The pole-star
 - Solitary
 - Original
 - Steps
 - Resolves
 - Greek letter
 - Silver duck
 - Silver coin of Italy
 - Take out
 - Beverages
 - Cylindrical
 - Synonymous sodium carbonate
 - Adventitious sounds
 - Alone
 - News
 - Poem
 - Comerfort
 - Vehicle
 - Gigante
 - Fat
 - Flint-like bird
 - Fragrant rose-petal oil
 - Outer layer of the pincarp
 - Female of the ruff
 - Withdraws
 - Folding picture support
- VERTICAL
- Tied with strip of woven fabric
 - Winged
 - Pertaining to place
 - Unit
 - Bird's habitation
 - Foot lever
 - Dish of eggs and milk
 - Resonant substance
 - Indigo plant
 - Repeater
 - East Indian herbs
 - Repetitive
 - Sea eagle
 - One in scruple subject
 - Not difficult
 - Kind of horse
 - Re-cover with hanging cloth
 - Nautical
 - Hard to bear
 - Worm
 - Twists out of shape
 - Despises
 - Genus of plants
 - Edible mushroom
 - Aromatic spice
 - Waste allowance
 - Son of Jacob and Zilpah
 - Beverage

POLLY AND HER PALS

Bitter Sweet

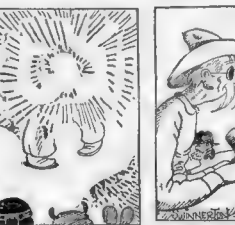

SKIPPY

(Follow Skippy in the Big Comic Section of the Sunday Advertiser)

Curtain Call

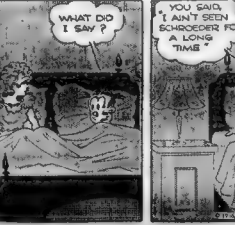

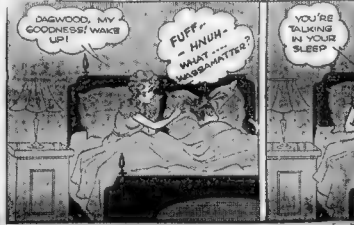

LITTLE JIMMY

The Gold Nugget War Club

BLONDIE

(Follow Blondie in the Big Comic Section of the Sunday Advertiser)

Night School

WRIGLEY'S SHORTENS THE JOURNEY

WRIGLEY'S SPEARMINT PERFECT GUM

THE STANDARD OF QUALITY

YESTERDAY'S ANSWERS:

1. Claws
2. The pole-star
3. Solitary
4. Original
5. Steps
6. Resolves
7. Greek letter
8. Silver duck
9. Silver coin of Italy
10. Take out
11. Beverages
12. Cylindrical
13. Synonymous sodium carbonate
14. Adventitious sounds
15. Alone
16. News
17. Poem
18. Comerfort
19. Vehicle
20. Gigante
21. Fat
22. Flint-like bird
23. Fragrant rose-petal oil
24. Outer layer of the pincarp
25. Female of the ruff
26. Withdraws
27. Folding picture support

Bruins Office War Turns Into Teapot Tempest

This, if true, would give the hooding bookmakers a useful advantage. Year by bookie asks, not with horse will win, but to be given one sure-fire in a race, and spreads his betting acceptances accordingly with the percentages, so that, after all commissions are paid, he is certain of a profit.

"I'm elated over the speed with which the boys are signing up and the enthusiasm they are showing in letters accompanying

12 Saturdays	12 Saturdays	12 N
12 Sundays	12 Sundays	12 S
Observation Day	July 4	July
		1,000

Days	12 Saturdays	12 Saturdays	12 Saturdays	12 Saturdays
Days	12 Sundays	12 Sundays	12 Sundays	12 Sundays
7	July 4 Labor Day	July 4 Labor Day	Decoration Day	13 Sundays Decoration Day

BOSTON 9 19 3 31 70
TONIGHT'S GAME
New Haven at Philadelphia.

[illegible]

SHUCCO-SHARKEY FEUD FLARES

GYM WORKOUT YEARS AGO STARTED IT ALL

TONY SHUCCO, N. E. heavyweight champion, beams with pride at the right hand "Sunday" punch which he promises will knock out Jack Sharkey when they clash at the Garden Friday evening.

JERRY GARDNER TONY SHUCCO HARRY KELLEY
EVERY EFFORT is being made by Dan Carroll to crush the ring comeback of Jack Sharkey. Carroll was wiped out of the big money in boxing when Sharkey knocked out Jim Maloney. Carroll has added Harry Kelley to his staff, which is getting Tony Shucco into condition for his bout

JOE RICCOTTI
MAKE IT an Italian clean sweep, Tony Shucco is telling Joe Riccotti of the North End, who clashes with Irish Jimmy O'Byrne in the semifinal to the Shucco-Sharkey battle at the Garden Friday evening.

Ring Conspiracy

Shucco and Conferees Plot
Downfall of Sharkey

(Continued from International News Photograph Service.)

By Damon Runyon

Damon Runyon tells herewith in his third article on the quest of "white hope" who can defeat Joe Louis, the "Brown Bomber," how, in another era of fist-fests, Jack Johnson captured the heavyweight crown and generated the first search for a "white hope."

(Copyright, 1935, by Universal Service)

Miami Beach, Feb. 5—Thirty-two years ago, James J. Jeffries, heavyweight champion of the whole world, hung up his boxing gloves, and remarked:

"Boys, I'm through."

Then he began the prosaic occupation of leaning up against a bar in Los Angeles, of which he was one of the proud proprietors. Barney Oldfield, the great racing driver, was another.

Jeffries had been a truly great champion, a rough, rugged, fellow who could take an awful smacking, and do plenty of smacking himself.

But as champion, he hadn't had much work for two or three years, and he was tired of the hubbub of championing, anyway. So he just retired, undefeated, as Gene Tunney did in 1923.

The Jeffries' retirement had the same effect as Tunney's withdrawal, which is to say, it left the heavyweight division in a lull.

The heavyweights of the day were a dime-a-dozen. A lanky, grinning Negro named John Arthur Johnson was coming along fairly well, but he got out-fumbled in a long, dreary bout with Marvin Hart, of Louisville, Kentucky.

HART CHAMP

Hart was a big, slow plodder, of no great ability, yet he suddenly acquired claim to Jeff's vacant title by flattening Jack Root in 32 rounds at Reno, Nevada, in 1905.

Jeffries referred that bout, which the promoter announced as determining Jeffries' successor.

Jeff repudiated the idea that he sanctioned giving away his title, and Hart didn't get much recognition as the title holder, though oddsmen thought when Tommy Burns beat him in February, 1906, Burns was pretty generally recognized.

You see, they had no better commiseration in those days to strengthen these things out.

I claim Tommy Burns was more of a real world champion than any other fighter that ever held the title. He defended his claim in several different countries quite successfully.

He was a pretty tough customer, but now there fell across his path, the dark shadow of the lanky Negro who had been out-fumbled by Hart. John Arthur Johnson had improved.

Presently Burns was in much the same situation that Braddock is today. The world of flatland thought it a cinch that Johnson would beat him if they ever fought.

WHALED BURNS

A cagey old manager of those days, Sam Flintridge, was handing Johnson, and he walked Burns down into Australia in 1908. A promoter there gave Burns $20,000, a record figure up to that time, to meet Johnson, and they fought in Sydney in 1908.

Johnson gave Burns a terrific beating. Burns had a pretty strong claim on the heavyweight title. A claimer began in these United States

Continued on Page 23, Column 1

ZARYNOFF Ties Up With Rae AT ARENA

Count George Zarynoff and Tommy Rae, a pair of human thunderbolts, collide tonight in the feature of Alex MacLean's wrestling show at the Arena, Boston's only grappling carnival of the week.

Gentleman Jack Washburn, king of the bad men, makes his return to the arena tonight, while the Miles and Ike or wrestling—the Olson twins—Tom and Minneapolis, provide another feature of a starry card.

Zarynoff, Russian steeple man, will be walking into real trouble when he vaults over the ropes and steps out to meet the rugged Tommy Rae tonight in a two out of three falls match.

Wrestling fans, it appears, are in for a rare treat with little bit potence and straight wrestling, for Zarynoff and Rae seldom resort to punching, kicking, gouging, and other tactics so prominent lately on the mat.

Other highlights of the evening will be the match between the two men who look exactly alike, even to the tattooing on their arms, Jackie Odillo Marchionni, victim of their recent swap, in the semi-final.

Two Hialeah mites, Don Petroff in a preliminary.

So that the twins don't try to double-cross Marchionni again, Hialeah will be guarded in Marchionni's corner during the semi-final.

First bout at 8:15; main bout at 10 MAIN BOUT

Count George Zarynoff, Gratton, vs. Tommy Rae, Portland, Ore.

SEMI-FINAL

Hermel Olson, Minneapolis, vs. Odillo Marchionni, Dorchester.

SPECIAL BOUTS

Gentleman Jack Washburn, New York, vs. Chief Little Moose, Ojibwa.

Charlie Strick, Boston, vs. Boris Demotroff, Louisville, Ky.

PRELIMINARIES

Hermel Olson, Minneapolis, vs. Don Petroff, Russia.

John Schaeffer, Cambridge, vs. Alex Brown, Chicago.

Steve Brady, Holyoke, vs. Frank Edict, New York.

Boxing Results

New York, Feb. 4.—Lester, ex-servant of scheduled 10, in 10th of 10.

Strengthen Hands During Winter, Little Urges

By Lawson Little
AMERICAN AND BRITISH AMATEUR CHAMPION

(Only Winner of Both Titles Two Years Running)
With the winter season well on the way past us, I think it is time for those golfers who have been snow-bound, to start thinking about the Royal and Ancient game again. There are a few things they can do that will aid them in getting a head start on the Sunday morning foursomes.

Get out the old putter, clear the fur from its face and use just how true the rug is in the sitting room. Many stars in amateur golf do this during the winter to keep the feel of the club in their hands.

Also, there are a number of indoor golf schools in the larger cities throughout the United States where one can immerse in those useless, so that he can start out with a bang in the spring. This, of course, is not as good as playing, but it will help the player get back into his late mid-summer form before the late summer.

There is no doubt that man, because of his physical strength over women, has an advantage—that is, the best men players can beat the best women players. Joyce Wadsworth may be man's only stumbling block, and that would happen only occasionally.

Women, in order to compete with men, are forever striving for distance and perfecting their chipping and putting. The quest for distance, is then, woman's main problem in developing a championship golf game.

When one tries to hit beyond oneself, one will lose control of the club and the result will be a missed shot. Since the hands are the only contact one has with the club, it is obvious that the club has to be swung with them. If they are too weak to swing it, poor results will certainly follow.

As a general rule women's hands are not strong enough—women try to get distance by swinging the club more with their arms and shoulders. My experience with the young players proved to me how quickly the hands could be strengthened sufficiently to have an effect on their games. My theory is that strong hands are the necessary for distance and control.

Lawson Little will have an article on golf in the Boston Sunday Advertiser. Little has an amateur golf championship, and he will be married here next Sunday at 8:30 p. m. The marriage license Little gave his age as 25, Miss Hurd 16.

Twosome
Chicago, Feb. 5.—W. Lawson Little, Jr., of St. Francis, holder of the British and American amateur golf championships, and Miss Dorothy Agnes Hurd, of Chicago, will be married here Saturday at 8:30 p. m. The marriage license Little gave his age as 25, Miss Hurd 16.

Boxing Results

New York, Feb. 4.—Lester, ex-servant of scheduled 10, in 10th of 10.

Boxing Results

New York, Feb. 4.—Lester, ex-servant of scheduled 10, in 10th of 10.

Boxing Results

New York, Feb. 4.—Lester, ex-servant of scheduled 10, in 10th of 10.

Boxing Results

New York, Feb. 4.—Lester, ex-servant of scheduled 10, in 10th of 10.

Boxing Results

New York, Feb. 4.—Lester, ex-servant of scheduled 10, in 10th of 10.

Boxing Results

New York, Feb. 4.—Lester, ex-servant of scheduled 10, in 10th of 10.

Boxing Results

New York, Feb. 4.—Lester, ex-servant of scheduled 10, in 10th of 10.

Boxing Results

SHUCCO Spots Sharkey 15 POUNDS

By Sam Cohen

When a fighter hates he hates Tony Shucco hates Jack Sharkey.

And Jack Sharkey hates Tony Shucco.

This bitter feeling was the only reason why Sharkey would consent to take his comeback chance against Shucco, and why Shucco was willing to fight Sharkey in a New England heavyweight championship battle at the Garden, Friday.

Few, if any, knew of the hatred that existed between Shucco and Sharkey, inasmuch as the former never was given any recognition in the heavyweight division when Sharkey ruled as champion.

It all happened some years ago when Sharkey was flickering in the shadows of the world heavyweight throne.

While Sharkey was boxing in New York, he did much of his training here. One day the former sparring partner and asked Shucco, who was pretty light at the time, if he would volunteer his services.

Sharkey worked with Shucco only once. After two rounds Sharkey had Shucco bounced from his staff and Tony, who is seldom given to verbal outbursts, accused Sharkey of finding the going too tough.

The following day Shucco showed up at the gymnasium and pleaded with Johnny Buckley, Sharkey's manager, for an opportunity to box with Sharkey, but Buckley dismissed him with a short remark.

When Don Carroll, his manager, told Shucco he had a chance to fight with Sharkey for the New England heavyweight championship, Tony told him to make the match if he had to fight Sharkey for nothing.

Now Sharkey forgotten the incident. At the mere mention of "Shucco," he grows still, you're afraid he's going to bite your ears off.

Hands Only

When one tries to hit beyond oneself, one will lose control of the club and the result will be a missed shot. Since the hands are the only contact one has with the club, it is obvious that the club has to be swung with them. If they are too weak to swing it, poor results will certainly follow.

As a general rule women's hands are not strong enough—women try to get distance by swinging the club more with their arms and shoulders. My experience with the young players proved to me how quickly the hands could be strengthened sufficiently to have an effect on their games. My theory is that strong hands are the necessary for distance and control.

Lawson Little will have an article on golf in the Boston Sunday Advertiser. Little has an amateur golf championship, and he will be married here next Sunday at 8:30 p. m. The marriage license Little gave his age as 25, Miss Hurd 16.

Twosome

Chicago, Feb. 5.—W. Lawson Little, Jr., of St. Francis, holder of the British and American amateur golf championships, and Miss Dorothy Agnes Hurd, of Chicago, will be married here Saturday at 8:30 p. m. The marriage license Little gave his age as 25, Miss Hurd 16.

Boxing Results

New York, Feb. 4.—Lester, ex-servant of scheduled 10, in 10th of 10.

Boxing Results

New York, Feb. 4.—Lester, ex-servant of scheduled 10, in 10th of 10.

Boxing Results

New York, Feb. 4.—Lester, ex-servant of scheduled 10, in 10th of 10.

Boxing Results

New York, Feb. 4.—Lester, ex-servant of scheduled 10, in 10th of 10.

Boxing Results

New York, Feb. 4.—Lester, ex-servant of scheduled 10, in 10th of 10.

Boxing Results

New York, Feb. 4.—Lester, ex-servant of scheduled 10, in 10th of 10.

Boxing Results

New York, Feb. 4.—Lester, ex-servant of scheduled 10, in 10th of 10.

Boxing Results

New York, Feb. 4.—Lester, ex-servant of scheduled 10, in 10th of 10.

Boxing Results

JEFF RETURNS AFTER 5 YEARS AT BAR TAKES LACING FROM JOHNSON

By Damon Runyon

Damon Runyon tells herewith in his third article on the quest of "white hope" who can defeat Joe Louis, the "Brown Bomber," how, in another era of fist-fests, Jack Johnson captured the heavyweight crown and generated the first search for a "white hope."

(Copyright, 1935, by Universal Service)

Miami Beach, Feb. 5—Thirty-two years ago, James J. Jeffries, heavyweight champion of the whole world, hung up his boxing gloves, and remarked:

"Boys, I'm through."

Then he began the prosaic occupation of leaning up against a bar in Los Angeles, of which he was one of the proud proprietors. Barney Oldfield, the great racing driver, was another.

Jeffries had been a truly great champion, a rough, rugged, fellow who could take an awful smacking, and do plenty of smacking himself.

But as champion, he hadn't had much work for two or three years, and he was tired of the hubbub of championing, anyway. So he just retired, undefeated, as Gene Tunney did in 1923.

The Jeffries' retirement had the same effect as Tunney's withdrawal, which is to say, it left the heavyweight division in a lull.

The heavyweights of the day were a dime-a-dozen. A lanky, grinning Negro named John Arthur Johnson was coming along fairly well, but he got out-fumbled in a long, dreary bout with Marvin Hart, of Louisville, Kentucky.

HART CHAMP

Hart was a big, slow plodder, of no great ability, yet he suddenly acquired claim to Jeff's vacant title by flattening Jack Root in 32 rounds at Reno, Nevada, in 1905.

Jeffries referred that bout, which the promoter announced as determining Jeffries' successor.

Jeff repudiated the idea that he sanctioned giving away his title, and Hart didn't get much recognition as the title holder, though oddsmen thought when Tommy Burns beat him in February, 1906, Burns was pretty generally recognized.

You see, they had no better commiseration in those days to strengthen these things out.

I claim Tommy Burns was more of a real world champion than any other fighter that ever held the title. He defended his claim in several different countries quite successfully.

He was a pretty tough customer, but now there fell across his path, the dark shadow of the lanky Negro who had been out-fumbled by Hart. John Arthur Johnson had improved.

Presently Burns was in much the same situation that Braddock is today. The world of flatland thought it a cinch that Johnson would beat him if they ever fought.

WHALED BURNS

A cagey old manager of those days, Sam Flintridge, was handing Johnson, and he walked Burns down into Australia in 1908. A promoter there gave Burns $20,000, a record figure up to that time, to meet Johnson, and they fought in Sydney in 1908.

Johnson gave Burns a terrific beating. Burns had a pretty strong claim on the heavyweight title. A claimer began in these United States

Continued on Page 23, Column 1

Frozen Facts

Free-For-All Race in N. H. L. Bruins Have Edge On Wings, Hawks

By BILL GRIMES

Although they have all played 30 or more of their 48 games, there is not a single club in the N. H. L. that cannot be eliminated from the playoffs.

As predicted before the season opened, the race is the closest in many years.

Blackhawks and Red Wings are deadlocked in first place of the American Division, but they are only two games out in front of the Bruins, who slipped back to the cellar berth by losing to Toronto, 3 to 0.

There's a wider gap separating the first and last-place clubs in the Canadian Division, but neither Toronto nor Montreal is assured of holding its advantage over Canadians and Americans, who are trailing by three and three and a half games, respectively.

Rangers, who snapped out of their slump as soon as Howie Moreau joined their ranks, holds a half-game edge over the Bruins, but the New Yorkers have played three more games than Boston, which gives the prize of the North Star a worthwhile ace in the hole.

During the next six weeks there's going to be some mad scrambling for the playoff berth.

It's a wide-open battle for the American Division championship, with each of the four contenders holding equal chances of coming through on top.

From here in the going will be rough, which gives the Bruins more the red rugged in their section, an advantage over the more fragile Red Wings and Blackhawks.

Maroons and Maple Leafs look like the best bet in the International Division, while the Americans will require some favorable breaks to eliminate Les Canadiens.

Leafs Tough to Beat From Now In, Says Selke

Just before he left for New York, Frank Selke, the client power behind the Toronto club, declared the Maple Leafs had found themselves. "This shut out victory made the Leafs, and they'll be a tough outfit for any club to beat from this point to the wire," declared Selke.

"You recall that before the game I told you we'd beat the Bruins," continued Selke. "Last week, I could see the players were starting to click, and I was sure it would give them the edge in Chicago, despite the fact we were beaten."

"Chuck Connacher and Buster Blackman are rounding into form now, where they hit their peaks, will be stronger than ever before," Selke said. "Maple Leaf Selke to the Rangers!" he was heard.

"I don't believe so. We are of the opinion that the $5,000 offer made by Lester Patrick was a newspaper proposition."

"We've got the story, Al. Selke's played Art Coulter by such a wide margin on his last paper that I was sure to give Coulter the story who, in order to show that he was the best, he gave Coulter the strongest team possible, called his double on the heavyweights and made the offer."

JOE PALOOKA

Pay Day

REPUTABLE MERCHANTS GIVE YOU WHAT YOU ASK FOR—IN STORES WHERE SUBSTITUTION IS PRACTISED—INSIST ON

